An archangel descended among us would scarcely give a new, original idea on this subject. I shall therefore reserve myself, Sir, for the reply, if I hear any material objection to the motion, which I shall have the honour of submitting to this House. I can foresee only one objection, which I shall endeavour to obviate, and I hope the House will think that delicacy ought to yield to justice. Gentlemen, I observe, have scruples of rescinding former resolutions, not knowing, they say, where such a practice may stop. It is a scruple, in my opinion, very ill-founded. The first great object is truth, and we ought to follow where that leads. If the last Parliament have acted wrong, let us reform their errors. If they have established...

Totally one of the better pdf I have at any time read through. It really is simplified but shocks within the 50 % from the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
