Honorable Revolution: A War Worthy of Sacrifice (Paperback)

By Karen Bowden-Cox

Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 221 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Men and their wars are what is wrong! Margarett sobbed. Is there no place on God s earth where men can live in harmony? Do you hear your brother? He s whistling that song that has colonists grabbing their muskets and running off to fight. Wasn t enough blood spilled in Massachusetts? As Patrick Henry and other revolutionaries rouse the colonies into war against England, a smaller battle wages in the Hempleman household. George longs to fight for his country, but his wife, Margarett, sees enough turmoil and bloodshed. What she doesn t realize is that George s brother, Siegfried; and half-sister, Bertha; and even her own brother, Anthony, are already involved in the war efforts. Siegfried and Anthony are conscripted from the Hessian army to fight for the British army, and Bertha is charmed by a dangerous British officer. All of them pursue different paths. Will the war divide the Hemplemans home? Or will they be able to stand together during this Honorable Revolution? Karen Bowden-Cox s heartwarming tale will take you through the struggle...
