Not illustrated. 1856 Excerpt: . . . it off. Beware, also, of imitating Achan, who coveted the accursed thing, and troubled the camp of Israel. On the contrary, according to the command of God, when thou goest forth against thine enemies, then keep thee from every wicked thing. Act in this way, and at length it shall be said to you, as to all good soldiers of the Cross, Soldier of Christ, well done, Rest from thy Wed employ; The battle oer, the victory won, Enter thy Masters joy. To you, my dear readers, who do not profess to belong to Christ, need we say that, in the Christian warfare, you cannot be neutral; that, if you are not for Christ, you are against him. Or, need we add, that it is your interest, no less than your duty, to become his soldiers For, just like others naturally, are you not, in one form or another, the servants of Satan, and not of Christ; and, consequently, fighting under the hostile standard of Satan, and not under the heavenly banner of Christ Might you not, also, justly continue in this state, not only in time, but throughout eternity; and, doing Satans work, receive Satans wages Yet, although this is your desert, and wretched as you are in selling yourselves to sin, and in serving Satan, by the blood of Jesus you may be redeemed from the slavery of sin and Satan, and transferred to the service of holiness and Christ. Now, as...
