Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A Traditional Keystone Christmas is the fifth novel in the Welcome to Keystone series and the first holiday special edition novel. In this installment, it's Christmas in Keystone, and everyone is preparing for the holiday season by wrapping presents, spending time with friends, and of course going to the annual tree-decorating party in Lakeview Park. But while this may appear to be a festive and cheerful scene to outsiders, problems are still brewing within. The Lawrences have invited all of their relatives to spend the holiday with them, but things are less than perfect. Caterina constantly fears that her Wicca cousin, Paula, will ruin her reputation while Keri Ann and Jody begin to wonder just exactly what their Aunt Lynn is hiding. Meanwhile, it doesn't seem like Christmas at all at the Hart house as Linda Hart falls deeply into the yearly depression that she has experienced every year since the Christmas Eve she lost her husband. Because their mother seems worse than ever this year, Brendan is forced to try to hide the truth of...
