Questions will also be set to test the candidate s knowledge of the tools, plant, and appliances used in building. Tables (tee p. 34) will be supplied to candidates in Honours to assist them in calculation. Slide rules may be used by candidates in all the stages. Compulsory questions may be set at the examination. Memorandum Upon The Preparation Of Drawings By Students. Drawings to scale should be prepared in such a way as to give full information and exact guidance to the workmen who may have to use them, neither more nor less. All drawings, lettering, and numerals should be neat and clear; they should not be what is called ornamental. Either italics or engrossing letters should be adopted. There is no difference between the purpose of descriptive drawings for buildings and of those for machines and other constructive works, but there may be some difference in office practice in their preparation. For good work architects should in descriptive drawings follow the modern method of machine draughtsmen. This is to produce an accurate, well-finished tracing from which any number of prints may be taken. Blue prints, showing white lines on a blue ground, are the most easily prepared, and serve most practical purposes. But prints on a white ground are specially suitable in some cases, as they can be coloured. Students should therefore...
