Philibert, his subject being The Action of Saline Purgatives. Pure Food Bill Endorsed. --J. A. Yerington, chairman of the board of directors of National Pure Food Manufacturers Association, and Thomas E. Lannen, the secretary, addressed the St. Louis members of that organization recently in reference to the pure food bill it is proposed to introduce during the present session of congress. At the conclusion of the address the twenty-five St. Louis manufacturers present expressed themselves as in favor of the plan. Heard at College Professor: Of what use is laughing in dentistry Student: It is used for making impressions of teeth. Professor: What becomes of the nitrogen when vegetable matter undergoes decomposition Ambitious student: It is converted into carbonic acid. Professor: What is a deliriant Perfect Student: Fantastic ideas. The Genuine Article. --A crowd of children gathered Sunday around the branch store of the FrickeHahn Drug Co. , 3860 South Broadway. They gazed longingly at the display of holiday toys. Is dey real inquired one. Sure, Santa dont send no make-believe tings, was the answer. Bet dey aint, said the first. Bet dey is, came from the second. Well, Ill see, the first speaker concluded and he secured a match, lit it and threw it among the tinsels. There was an instant response from the toys, and they were so real that it took half an hours fight before the blaze was extinguished. Fricke and Hahn estimate their...
