Sitting in his cramped airplane seat, he thought about how Americans were loud, rude, and why won't these kids settle down? It was going to be a long flight. But the woman. Why is she crying? She's so beautiful. Her long, honey-brown hair cascaded down her black trench coat. The single tear dripping down her face pulled a knife through his heart. Hey, are you all right? With a foggy blink, he awoke. The stewardess was preparing for landing, and he needed to prepare for a new life in corporate New York. A new life in which he lived on the twentieth floor. On the twentieth floor, where he had a view of a beautiful woman with honey-brown hair, trapped in strangely visible room-The Glass Shower. Sprint through the streets of New York with Nik as he unravels the mystery behind this beautiful woman, his heart wrenching dream, and his eerie new job-none of which are turning out to be...
